Listen

Hear Lee Webster, NHFA President, speak with Deanna Cochran of The Journey Radio about how 'Home Funerals are Here to Stay' in an interview recorded earlier this month. Lee is known for her articulate conversation where she can explain complex issues that are easy for people to understand. Because of her years of experience and also being on the board of the Green Burial Council, she has a grasp of the issues that few people do. LISTEN

Add your name to our 'Get Assistance' directory

New forms on website make it easy!

Our Get Assistance directories include links to members who provide a variety of services about home funerals. Information about workshops and trainings are included as well. If you would like to add your name to one of the directories, we've now made it simpler.

Go to <http://homefuneralalliance.org/get-assistance/> and fill out the form for the directory you want to be included in. The form will step you through the information that is needed. Our directories include: Speaker - Workshop or Training - Home Funeral Guide - End-of-life Transition Guide - Celebrant - Home-friendly Funeral Director - Community Care Group
