

May 2015, NHFA Newsletter

View this email in your browser

National Home Funeral Alliance

supporting home funeral education

Registration now open!

REGISTER NOW for our 2015 conference!

Join us for a fantastic program featuring Frank Ostaseski, Caitlin Doughty, Kate Munger and Nancy Jewel Poer in the beautiful Presentation Center, set amongst the redwoods.

Register today to connect with other home funeral leaders and learners this October 2 - 4 in Los Gatos, California.

We can't wait to see you there!

Learn more about the Conference | REGISTER

Send your Candidate suggestions for NHFA board positions NOW!

Do you know someone who has mad skills and a burning desire to help the NHFA?

Or are YOU that someone?

The Nominating Committee is seeking candidates for the Board of Directors with a particular need in the areas of finance and education though all suggestions are welcome.

Check out the new NHFA!

We have a new website. It's got all the same good stuff (plus more) – and a new look and feel.

Tell us your story in our new 'Stories' section. Every home funeral story is not only important, but helps all of us gain in confidence and connection.

We get asked about The Law more than anything else – so we made it front and center. Find out about the nine restrictive states and how you can get involved with your local legislature to keep home funerals in the hands of friends and families.

Learn about the NHFA – its history, what we stand for, and more.

Give us your feedback! Let us know if you see anything missing – or even if you like it. We love your comments

Please forward your nominees — and don't be afraid to toot your own horn — to Lee Webster at nhfa.paper@gmail.com or by texting 603.236.9495.

suggestions and opinions – so get in contact with us! Your comments truly help shape the direction in which we grow.

NHFA // Get Assistance // Resources // Get Involved